THE ROYAL INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY

APPEAL FOR NEW MEMBERS AND DONATIONS

THE Council is willing to receive applications for membership of the Institute from all those who are interested in philosophy.

The Institute has no endowments, and its work, which includes lecture courses and meetings for discussion in the various Centres, as well as the conduct of the Journal, cannot be carried on from revenue derived solely from annual subscriptions. The Council, therefore, appeals for donations, small or large, from sympathizers with the Institute's aims.

POUR ENCOURAGER LES AUTRES

The following letter has been received from the solicitors of the late Professor S. A. Cook of Cambridge:

"To the Secretary of the Royal Institute of Philosophy.

We think you would like to know that under the will of our client, the late Professor Cook, a legacy of £50 was bequeathed to the Royal Institute of Philosophy.

At the request of the executors, the Master and Fellows of Gonville and Caius College, we enclose notice of a memorial service to be held in the College chapel."
